

Security Council

The question of Yemen

1. Acknowledging the current help from nations surrounding Yemen such as Saudi Arabia, to bring peace to the area,
2. Deeply concerned by the rise of terrorist groups such as AQAP and ISIL taking advantage of the unstable situation,
3. Noting with regret that the current civil war began in 2004 and has escalated ever since,
4. Recalling the UN Security Council 2201 which encourages peace talks between the government and the rebels,
5. Alarmed by the increasing number of civilian death, over 30,000, caught in the crossfire of the government and rebels,
6. Encouraging all countries in the Security Council to take action and help both sides of the civil war and the civilians,
7. Expressing appreciation for finding a peaceful solution to the current Yemeni crisis;
